

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF NARRAGANSETT

The pre-Fall Edition: August 2018

My apologies for the reference to fall. I know we are all enjoying the amazing summer God has given us and I do not mean to rush it whatsoever. I trust that you are enjoying more relaxed schedules with your families.

The Women's Ministry Team has been meeting to begin planning for the coming year. We are so grateful for the previous year of sharing together and will be building on that theme with the word HOPE as we build our various events, studies etc. on this verse from Hebrews that describes God's faithfulness and the hope we have in His promises.

I just love the picture that this Hebrews verse paints. With fall looming ahead (yes, including hurricane season) ... I can picture the boats being blown in the high winds, bouncing over the choppy waves, their ropes tense holding onto their anchors... yet not letting go. I double-dare you to read the larger context: Hebrews 6: 9-20 to complete the picture.

This year, we will be looking back at how God has held onto His people and what He has done to provide security in the past, and how we can claim His promises today and as we look forward in the future. We recognize that some days our anchors feel like they will not hold. Yet we can look upward for our security through the storms. What is more awesome than that?

Please join us for our Fall Kick-Off event on Saturday, September 15th at 10AM. We will be serving BRUNCH and have a LIVE speaker coming to start the year's theme off for us. Her name is Ricki Kraines (yes, she's related to the other Kraines you may know) and she hails from the Richmond, VA area.

Brunch with friends?
And an inspiring message?
SIGN ME UP ☺
